

FATFILMFEST 2009

International Short Film Festival

SIXTH EDITION
16-18 August 2009

Entry form and participation regulations

Art.1 - Organization

The Fatfilmfest 2009 is organized by the Cultural Association Lelefante, Turin, Italy.

Art.2 - Objective

The aim of the Festival is to promote the diffusion of short films.

Art.3 - Deadline

The movies should be submitted no later than 1 June, 2009.

Art.4 - Admission criteria and selection

1. The Fatfilmfest accepts short films with a maximum duration of 30 minutes.
2. There are no limitations to the technique, style, subject or kind of movie.
3. Each author can submit more than one movie regardless of whether it had previously been presented at other film festivals or competitions. It is mandatory that the owners of the copyrights of the movie give their permission to present it at the Festival (please see the form attached below).
4. The shorts must be sent in DVD format; please check the quality of the DVD before sending it and check its compatibility with normal DVD readers. The sending in different formats must be discussed with the Organization of the Festival.
5. The DVD should be mailed together with a copy of this announcement and a filled entry form signed by the author and the owners of the copyrights of the movie.
6. All of the submitted movies must be sent with English subtitles together with the dialogue list in order to facilitate the editing of Italian subtitles for the Festival. All the dialogues and texts must be translated in English, with the exception of Italian movies.
7. Each filmmaker is responsible for the content of the movie and for the use of copyright-protected music.
8. The movie copies sent will not be returned and they will become part of the Festival archives. The Organization guarantees the utmost care for the received works, but will not, in any case or circumstance, be considered responsible for possible damages suffered during their delivery and/or subsequent storage in the Festival's locations.
